

Prorates INC. is proud to announce the 2011 National Credit Card Rate & Rewards Report.

This all new study will capture the details of credit card and rewards programs offered by the top banks in the nation, such as:

- American Express
- Citibank
- Chase
- Discover
- Bank of America

and more!

The 2011 National Bank Card Program Report will go in-depth on how the top institutions are structuring their credit card programs and the related rewards. Included in this project are:

- Executive Summary of rewards plans
- Detailed Rate Survey of all card plans including teaser rates and periods, cash advance rate, penalty rate, transaction and penalty fees, and much more!
- Business and consumer cards are included, both rewards and non rewards plans.

You may select additional card plans ahead of time to include in your report, and we have some bonus data not usually included in credit card surveys free of charge.

With this accurate information you can evaluate your current card and reward programs and make the informed decisions necessary to compete effectively in what has become a very nuanced and competitive product market.
